

(Mike) Hi I'm phoning about the Van you have for sale, can you tell me more about it –

(Jim) Ahhh, which one?

(Mike) Why are you selling it?

(Aaron) I bought it to convert into a campervan for me and my wife when we retired, but she has had to have a hip operation which means we're not going to be able to go away anymore, I'm looking after her fulltime so I don't have the time to do the work, we just want someone else to be able to enjoy it.

(Mike) When can I come and see it? -

(Jim) I'm out of the Country right now. We've emigrated, but didn't manage to sell the van before we left.

(Mike) When can I come and look at it?

(Aaron) We could do that at the weekend, but I have other enquiries who are ready to buy it now, but I want you to be able to have it

(Jim) The vans in storage and we can't be there to get to it – but we have a transport company ready to get it delivered to you

(Mike) I really want to see it before I decide –

(Aaron) There's lots of interest in it, so you'll have to be quick, I just need you to transfer the money to secure it

(Mike) What if there is something wrong with it when it arrives –

(Jim) If it's not what you want when it arrives, you can just reject it, the haulage company will bring it back and we'll refund you – there is no risk.
